Company Overview

Midas Gold owns the world class Stibnite Gold Project, located in a historic mining district in central Idaho. In 2014, an independent PFS demonstrated potential for a large-scale, long-life, low-cost open pit gold mine that stands out from its peers. The Company filed its Plan of Restoration and Operations in September 2016 which has launched the formal permitting process for mine development. Well-funded and with a multi-million ounce high-grade open-pit gold reserve, important antimony credits and significant room for further growth, the Stibnite Gold Project is one of North America's premier development stories.
